INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS SCHOOL

International Business School, Beijing Foreign Studies University

Established in 2001, International Business School (IBS) is one of the largest schools in Beijing Foreign Studies University. The full-time students enrolled have amounted to over 2,000 currently, with nearly 500 overseas students. Based in Beijing and Foshan, the two campuses are typical of Northern and Southern Chinese culture. Meanwhile, the two regions are quite different in the economic development and business model, both are equally important for understanding China.

Mobility between the two campuses are allowed for our degree students, which is a very unique and rewarding experience.

Bachelor Program

The bachelor program requires 4-year full-time study. Two types of bachelor degrees are offered: Bachelor of Economics and Bachelor of Management. 6 majors are offered in the bachelor program, instructed in either English or Mandarin, or both available. Admission requirements vary from different programs.
